XSERIES

SIG SAUER® HAS TAKEN SPORT PISTOL TECHNOLOGY AND PERFORMANCE TO AN ENTIRELY NEW LEVEL.

Built around a common frame and slide design, the new Xseries provides greatly improved ergonomics and virtually unlimited possibilities for easily customizing and optimizing the performance to meet your specific needs. Common features to the line include an increased undercut for the beavertail and trigger guard, lowering the centerline of the barrel. Xseries pistols also feature an M1913 Picatinny accessory rail and a stainless steel frame and slide.
